Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because on page 2, line 9, it appears that a word has been omitted after the phrase "of the service provider, receives an...". Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1, 5, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
4. Regarding claim 1, the limitation "same provider" in lines 11-12 is unclear because both a service provider and information provider have been pointed out in the claim.
5. Claims 5 and 6 recites the limitation "monitoring period" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435).

8. Regarding claim 1, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach a system for handling an information item which originates from an information provider (figure 2; column 3, lines 4-13), is made available by a service provider and can be called via a communications network, comprising means wherein:

a. An ident code which identifies the information item is allocated to the information provider by the service provider (column 3, lines 24-25, 35-37).

b. The information item is deleted if the ident code is not transmitted to the same provider by the information provider (column 3, lines 40-53; column 6, lines 58-59).

9. Regarding claim 2, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 1. They further teach means wherein the ident code is transmitted together with a handling instruction relating to the information item, to the service provider by the information provider (column 3, lines 47-60).

Note that the email reply or link carries an instruction to add the address to the subscription database.

10. Regarding claim 3, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 2. They further teach means wherein during the transmission of the ident code together with a handling instruction by the information provider, the service provider handles the information item in accordance with the handling instruction (column 3, lines 47-60). Note that if the email can require either the addition of removal of an address from the subscription list.

11. Regarding claim 4, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 2. They further teach means wherein the handling instruction comprises changing the information item, retaining the information item, or deleting the information item (column 3, lines 47-60; column 8, lines 10-15).

12. Regarding claim 5, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 1. They further teach means wherein the monitoring period can be predetermined (column 3, line 67 – column 4, line 3).

13. Regarding claim 6, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 1. They further teach means wherein the monitoring period takes place automatically (column 3, line 67 – column 4, line 3).

14. Regarding claim 7, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 1. They further teach means wherein the communications network is the Internet (column 2, lines 60-65).

15. Regarding claim 8, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 1. They further teach means wherein the ident code is transmitted to the information provider by e-mail (column 3, lines 35-37).

Art Unit: 2153

16. Regarding claim 9, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 1. They further teach means wherein the ident code is transmitted, together with the handling instruction relating to the information item, to the service provider by e-mail (column 3, lines 47-48).

17. Regarding claim 10, Druckenmiller et al. (USPN 6,167,435) teach all the limitations as applied to claim 1. They further teach means wherein the information item made available has at least the last update date of the information (figure 3). Note that a date is sent with the information when it is updated.

Conclusion

18. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Please see the following:
